

BARRE DAILY TIMES

Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cts.; single copy, 1 cent.

Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.

Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Published Every Weekday Afternoon.

Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1903.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

2,900

"Times, of Course"

That's what all the newsboys say when asked which Barre paper sells the best. There is no doubt about it.

In a quiet way Barre granite is getting a liberal share of advertising which may result in the end with a big fish on the hook.

Women are barred from the bar in England. Aspirants for legal honors there should come to Vermont. The requirement here is that they have brains enough to get through the examining committee.

The "Medics" at the state university at Burlington are promised a fine building to replace the one burned down last Tuesday. They deserve it and the medical profession demands the better equipment that will be the result.

A man in Massachusetts has a cow that has calved up two silver twenty-five cent pieces. We have several boys on our old-time pay when you please subscription list that we would like mighty well to have "cough up" what they owe us.—Morrisville News and Citizen.

Such swine should be given the medicine that is their due, and perhaps the "coughing" process will follow.

The operation of grafting one man's ear to another man's head, where there was no ear has been pronounced to be a success in New York; and now there is a semi-cared man and a grafted ear man. "Lend me your ears" will be more significant now than as a mere literary phrase; or perhaps the quotation will be changed to "Sell me thine ear." The price quoted in this recent New York transaction was $5,000.

The persistent rumors of a base ball league in which Barre and Montpelier will be interested, continue to crop out. Barre and Montpelier could support one team without doubt and not be stared in the face with a big deficit at the end of the season. It is understood here that men who are interested in the league at Montpelier are desirous of clubbing with Barre to form a team, and Barre men will probably be as willing.

Make the home what it should be and the attraction will be sufficient to keep the boys at home nights.—Waterbury Record.

In the above the contemporary has given expression to a truth which ought to be realized in full force by all parents. There is a world of truth in the statement, and although it is reiterated time and again the parents do not seem to grasp the full meaning of it; or, realizing it, are too busy and preoccupied to put into operation any plans for home attraction. Then they wonder why the boys, and the girls, for that matter, take more enjoyment in going somewhere else than in staying at home. There is a decided lack of responsibility in this matter, which lack, more than any other agency, is the cause of so much youthful depravity. In the state of Vermont there has been an alarming increase in the crime, for instance, of burglary of which young boys and girls are guilty. Scarcely an issue of the daily papers appears without some news of arrests for theft, children of eight, ten or twelve years who were allowed to run about just as they pleased, with no restraint other than that of the law, and who have ended in a career of criminality. Few of them would have gone that way had all had the attractions of a pleasant home to start with. Most of them would have made, and possibly may yet make, honorable men and women. But it is the home that will prevent and correct, and the responsibility rests on those whose opportunity it is to make the home cheerful or cheerless, attractive or repulsive.

Wreath of Bones.

On a grave in an English cemetery is a wreath which to a casual observer appears to be a coral, but which in reality is nothing less than human bone. The bones, it is said, were collected during his travels by the deceased, who dexterously carved them with a pen-knife and made the wreath which now adorns his grave.

Paint Spots.

Equal parts of ammonia and spirits of turpentine will take paint out of clothing, no matter how dry or hard the paint may be. Saturate the spot two or three times, then wash out in soapuds.

Winter will catch you if you don't look out. Better look in here today.

Overcoats are cheaper than doctors' bills, and more attractive too. $5.00 to $25.00. (Overcoats, not doctors' bills).

Underwear? Yes, the best of all kinds, 50c per garment up to $4.00.

All boys entered in the competition for a Sweater must have their cards in the store by Monday night, December 7th.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

At the regular communication of Washington lodge, No. 6, F. & A. M., in Burlington Wednesday evening, a past master's jewel was presented Past Master J. Holmes Jackson, on behalf of the lodge by Past Master Charles C. Miller.

Several new cases of diphtheria have been quarantined in Brattleboro during the past few days, but none of them is serious. There are at least eight cases under quarantine at the Brattleboro retreat, all of those afflicted being attendants.

At the 20th annual meeting of the Ayrshire Breeders' association of the United States in Albany, N. Y., December 2, Charles M. Winslow of Brandon was elected secretary and treasurer. Mr. Winslow delivered an address at the afternoon session.

The newly remodelled Brattleboro Home for the Aged and Disabled was opened to the public at 2 o'clock yesterday for a sort of double ceremony, namely, the rededication of the home and the annual "harvest" day. Only persons who are 60 years old are admitted to the home, unless by special consideration of the corporation.

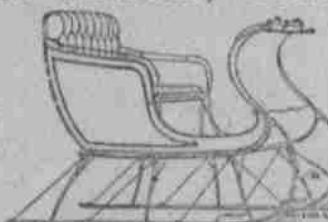

The steamer Reindeer, which sunk at the Central Vermont railway dock at the foot of College street Burlington, some time last spring, was successfully floated Wednesday. It has not yet been decided what will be done with the boat but the general opinion is that she will be taken to Pittsburgh or Whitehall and given a thorough inspection to decide her future career.

A Foot Rule!

There is one foot rule that says twelve inches.

But there is another foot rule that says "equal distribution of strength is a Shoe essential."

That is the rule that gives the Curtis Shoe its individuality.

When measuring the quality of a Shoe the latter rule is the one to go by. Remember the rule.

Saturday at Vaughan's

Ladies' White Outing Flannel Night Robes!

Here's a sale that's bound to fill the store Saturday with eager buyers. Values that are remarkable, to say the least, and it's just the sort of a garment you want these cold Winter nights. Here's the fact of the matter: We bought the goods months ago to run as a leader at $1.00 per garment. The makers were unable to turn them out fast enough, so were unable to fill our order until last week. We have too many. We need the room, and we believe that nine out of every ten women would like a pair of these nice White Robes at the reduced price, 79c each. You will wonder how they could be made for this price. Saturday, only 79c.

THE VAUGHAN STORE,

44 North Main Street, - - Barre, Vermont.

Stylish Overcoats!

We beat the world on $10.00 Overcoats. The less an Overcoat costs the more care is needed in buying. Cotton isn't so likely to slip into a better Coat.

If you live for years you'll never see better Overcoats sold for $15.00 than we are now selling at this price, and at $16.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00 such Overcoat elegance has never before been seen in any clothing store in Barre. Come in and look at them.
